To whom it may concern,

Donna helped me for some time and the changes she implemented have stood me in good stead for some time. She helped me with several problem customers and with outstanding debts that I didn't have the patience or skills to deal with. She managed a good combination of working from our premises and from her own to provide seamless cover to the customer. I am sure in these times many businesses must have similar problems and so I can only urge you to give Your Personal Organiser a try.

Yours sincerely,

Mark Brassington.
